Churches Start Revival Services

Community Joins in Holding Meeting at All Churches During Next Week

Six churches of Canyon have announced special services running from five to twelve days in observance of what the pastors are calling a "Spiritual Emphasis Week." Services will be held at all the churches at the same time and plans are being made to have as many services as possible in the various schools of Canyon to enable the students to get more benefit from this special series of meetings.

Pastor W. J. Phelps, of the Assembly of God announces that Raymond Jones of Amarillo will assist that church in services October 15-22 and he will speak each night at 8:00 at the church building in West Canyon. Visitors will be welcome.

The Church of Christ is without a minister at the present, but in keeping with plans made several months ago there will be services from October 11 to 22, with E. C. McKenzie of Nashville, Tenn., as preacher. Services will be at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. daily.

Pastor Joseph Findley of the First Christian Church has arranged to have Rev. R. C. Snodgrass and others to preach at his church each night at 8:00 from October 15 to 19.

Contributions to Legion Hall Are Being Received

Regular monthly meeting was held Monday night. The attendance is growing as a larger crowd was there than in the past months. Five War II veterans joined the Legion Post Monday night. The size of the furnishing fund for the Legion Hall is inspiring to the Post and Unit.

Plans were made for this month's activities.

Memorial services for War I and War II veterans, will be held Nov. 5th, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist Church with Robert Jones in charge. A detailed program will be announced later.

Breakfast for all veterans of both wars, and their family, will be held November 11 as has been for many years.

Program for November 11 depends on whether local business firms close. The American Legion and Unit will arrange an appropriate program for the occasion if enough people want a program.

Mrs. Tom Knighton and Mrs. Madison Daugherty were hostesses to the Legion and Auxiliary social following the business meetings. After a series of bridge and billiards coffee and chocolate cake were served to the players.

Bond Sales For Month Lacking in the Month's Quota

The quota of War Bonds for Randall county for the month of October has been assigned in the amount of $24,100.

The sales for the first ten days of October amounted to $6,493.75. This leaves a balance of $17,606.25 in order for the quota for the month shall be met.

The number of bond holders in Randall county who seek to cash their War Bonds has dwindled. Bond owners now know that they may walk into authorized banks any day and cash their bonds, and are therefore waiting until they actually need the cash.

There was a big rush to cash bonds on the 2nd day of October all over the nation, but this rush has subsided when it was realized that the government still needs money, and that another big bond drive will start in November.

Development To Start on Highway

Many New Homes Planned By Amarillo Business Men Along Highway No. 87

There will be much development between Canyon and Amarillo on the highway after the war, according to citizens living in the Hillside community. John McCarty, assistant publisher of the Amarillo Globe-News has lived in this community for two years and is highly pleased with the location.

Charley Pryor, manager of the Amarillo Hotel, has bought 20 acres in this community and planted it to alfalfa. He plans to build a home there after the war.

Carl Miller, of the Miller Drug, is moving a house to that territory.

A citizen of Borger has bought a homesite in the locality.

Grady Camp of the Globe-News and Ed West, a dry goodsman, have bought 20-acre tracts.

Twelve homesites have recently been sold on Western Avenue, and one house has been started by an Amarillo citizen.

There are practically 3,000 Amarillo citizens living in Randall county in the corporate limits of South Amarillo. A large group of new houses are being completed in Randall county on Washington Street. While the north part of Randall county is thereby developing rapidly during the war, many other homes will be built as soon as building materials are available following the war.

There will be no bargain rates on any daily newspaper this year. The regular rate of $10 per year will be in effect on the Amarillo News until January 1. After that date the rate will be $12 per year.

Subscribers should make their renewals through the Canyon News at once regardless of the expiration dates.

The Buffs came through the game at Albuquerque in good shape. The Lobos were handed a 19 to 12 defeat at the hands of the Buffs.

The Sky Giants team is composed of star university and professional football players. While the Buffs are strictly the underdogs in this game, the Buffs are figuring to dish out a good brand of football against this mighty team. The Buffs will be outweighed 20 pounds to the man in this game.

Former Mayor C. H. Jarrett Died on Monday

Set Splendid Record As Civic Worker and Mayor of Canyon—Funeral Wednesday

The community was shocked Monday night to hear of the death of C. H. Jarrett. He had suffered a heart attack Thursday, but the seriousness of his condition was not realized outside of the immediate family.

Clifton Jarrett was one of the outstanding citizens of Canyon where he has lived for 33 years. He has engaged in the drug business throughout these years, and was manager of the Jarrett Drug Company for the past quarter of a century. He was 58 years of age at the time of his death.

During these years he has devoted an unusually large amount of time to community work. When there was a community job to be performed, citizens of Canyon looked to Cliff Jarrett as the logical man to lead. His enthusiasm and untiring efforts on any job he under took were unboundless.

During World War I he took his part in the Red Cross. He has held a key position in Red Cross work ever since. Since the outbreak of World War II he has served on the Home Service Committee, and has gathered information on scores of men who had needy families at home, and has rendered other services.

When Coach Al Baggett came to West Texas State and saw the necessity of proper housing for the athletes, he turned to Cliff Jarrett as the proper citizen to assist him in building such a place. These two men, possessed with unusual farsightedness and enthusiasm started to work. They collected money, gathered materials, and secured assistance of various kinds from all over the Plains section. The most unique athletic plant in the nation is the result of the work of these two men, working together as a team.

As head of the Buffalo Athletic Club, Mr. Jarrett has assisted scores of athletes, and been of invaluable aid to the growing program of West Texas State.

Mr. Jarrett will always be remembered in Canyon for his fine administration on the City Commission. He was first elected to the City Commission in April, 1924, serving one term as Commissioner. He was elected Mayor in 1926 and served one term. In April, 1938, he was again called upon to serve as Mayor and continued in office until August 27, 1942, when he filed his resignation. During this later period the big paving program was carried out. More paving was laid in Canyon during his administration than at any other time. With the close of the program, Mr. Jarrett announced that he had devoted all of the time he could possibly spare to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett recently sold their home in the east part of Canyon and planned to build on west Fifth Avenue after the war. They have been living in the home of Mrs. R. A. Terrill while she is visiting her daughter in Pittsburgh. A few months ago he sold his drug store at Sundown, and just recently bought all of the stock in the drug store here which bears his name.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at three o'clock at the Presbyterian Church, of which he has been an official member for many years. Rev. Robert Jones, the pastor, was in charge.

Pall bearers were W. C. Black, W. J. Wooten, Frank Hicks, W. A. Miller, Dewey Foster, Lewis Hix, Ray Campbell, W. W. Nicklaus.

Honorary pall bearers were T. A. Black, Guy Harp, J. P. Hix, Lt. Glenn Marlin, Dick Furlow, C. R. Burrow, Tom Knighton, N. E. McIntire, J. J. Walker, H. S. Strain, Sam Bond, Dr. C. E. Donnell, Dr. M. A. Biggers, Dr. H. A. Brown, D. A. Shirley, Wallace R. Clark, Dr. J. A. Hill.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lemuel Jarrett, and one daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Gibson of Lubbock; four brothers, Dean R. P. Jarrett of Canyon, W. D. Jarrett and A. R. Jarrett of Temple, Okla., Devereaux Jarrett, U. S. Navy; four sisters, Mrs. O. S. Hervey of Greenville, Mrs. Calvin Tapp of Cleburne, Mrs. Leonard Mitchell of Amarillo, Mrs. Cecil Stokes of Granbury.

Mrs. Ann Fowler and Kirk are spending a month in the parental W. L. Johnson home while the Portales schools are dismissed for crop gathering.

Clothing Needed For Relief War Torn Countries

Do you have any old clothes around the house that you wish to dispose of to a good cause?

The coordinating Council of Church Women of Canyon are responding to a call from the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Committee. This committee needs 15 million pounds of wearable clothing to distribute to countries in Europe and China.

Any clothes that are wearable except shoes, hats and formal clothes are acceptable.

If you have clothes that you wish to contribute, bring them to the First Christian Church tomorrow, Friday, afternoon. Do not delay. Bring your package Friday. These clothes must be assorted as to kinds and sizes and shipped immediately.

This is a most worthy cause and should help the house wives of the community to clear their storage spaces of clothing that is no longer used at home but is too good to burn.

Remember these things must be in TOMORROW.

Wacs Recruiters Will See Women Here on Monday

A Wac Recruiting Team from Amarillo will be in Canyon Monday, October 16, to interview women who are eligible for the Women's Army Corps. The team composed of Lt. Vivian E. Woody, Sgt. Paula Edwards and Cpl. Esther Kennedy will have its headquarters in the post office. Any woman who wishes to contact the recruiters may do so by leaving her name with the local postmaster.

Before the end of the year the Women's Army Corps hopes to enlist thousands of young women as medical technicians. This is a splendid opportunity for young women who wish to make a direct contribution to the war effort. Upon completion of the necessary training as medical technicians, WAC's will use that training for the care and rehabilitation of the war wounded and disabled who are already returning large numbers.

Women enlisted in the WAC and having four years of high school will be accepted for training as laboratory, dental, X-Ray, orthopedic, surgical and medical technicians, occupational therapists, pharmacists, optometrists, psychiatric social workers, Braille teachers and lip reading teachers.

Along with medical technician training there are hundreds of other jobs for women enlisted in the WAC, jobs that may like wise lead to interesting and well paid work in the post-war period.

Nine Community Leaders Report

Those Who are Missed to Go to Light Office and Make War Chest Contribution

Practically all of the workers for the Annual War Chest Drive attended the rally at the high school auditorium Friday night. I. H. Davies of Amarillo made a splendid talk on the needs of the War Chest, and how the money was being divided among the various agencies which are working in the various fields of war relief.

Supplies for the drive were delivered by the leaders, Milton Morris and W. H. Upchurch, and the workers were urged to complete their canvass as quickly as possible.

Mr. Morris stated yesterday that the response over the county was highly satisfactory. He again urged that the canvass be completed this week. He instructed the workers to have their reports in by Friday of this week, but not later than Saturday noon.

B. F. Oatis was the first community leader in Canyon to turn in his list completed.

Mr. Morris urges that citizens who are missed in the canvass shall go to the office of Southwestern Public Service Co. and make their annual contribution.

To Max Hoffman of the Umbarger Community goes the honor of being the first neighborhood leader in Randall county to complete solicitation for funds for the United War Chest annual drive.

Mr. Hoffman had the names of fifteen farm families on his list. He visited each of them and turned in his list of contributors together with the money raised by 11 a. m. on Monday, the first day of the drive.

The second neighborhood leader to complete his list was S. L. Robinson of the Sunny Hill community who was the first one to complete his neighborhood in the 1943 War Chest drive. Mr. Robinson turned in this remittance to the treasurer, Ray Holland, at the Southwestern Public Service Co. office, only about two hours after Mr. Hoffman.

A total of nine farm neighborhood leaders of the Victory Council had completed their work, and turned in the money collected, during the first two days.

Neighborhood leaders completing the work before closing time Tuesday evening are Max Hoffman, S. L. Robinson, Mrs. H. W. Burrus, L. T. Campbell, Ray Metcalf, O. A. Smith, L. B. Hammond, C. C. Stewart, and Bradley Burrus.

Lt. Brewster Is Reported Killed In European War

A telegram from the War Department last Friday morning stated that Lt. Howard C. Brewster was killed in action over France on June 6. He was a glider pilot with the 437th Troop Carrier Group of the Ninth Air Force, which performed so admirably in what was called the "greatest and most successful air-born operation in the history of world aviation." In recognition of his meritorious action, he was awarded the Air Medal. He was Operations Officer for the 84th and 86th Squadrons.

Howard Carey Brewster, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brewster, was born at Ruston, Lincoln Parish, Louisiana, April 13, 1918. He graduated from Ruston High School and received his degree from Louisiana Technical College in 1941. He volunteered for the service of his country in January, 1942, and was awarded his wings in November, 1942. In February, 1943 he was married of Miss Kate Donnell of this city, who was teaching Home Economics in Dalhart High School. In February, 1944 he was sent to England where he received further training until the invasion of Europe began. He was with the first waves of gliders that swooped down into those muzzles of the German guns on the Normandy peninsula and helped to prepare the landing for the boys on the beaches. He was reported missing following those operations, and last week the War Department announced his death.

Mrs. Brewster, with her little daughter, Karen, now 2½ months old, was visiting with her husband's parents in Louisiana at the time the news was received. She will return to Canyon in the near future to make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Donnell.

Mrs. Marvin Cox and daughter, Hope, from San Antonio are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. Curtis Kelly and her husband.

Mrs. Florence Stephenson was brought from Northwest Texas Hospital Sunday. She is recovering satisfactorily from a severe illness.

Vote for Texas Regulars

Many Randall county people have openly stated that they will not support President Roosevelt for a 4th term. Most of them say they intend to vote for Dewey.

In such a case they will lose their votes and make it possible for Roosevelt to carry Texas by a large majority.

The case is very clear: Dewey cannot carry Texas. He has no hopes of carrying the state. His recent radio talks have not even been carried by Texas radio stations, because he knows there is no chance for the Republican party in Texas. The situation is entirely different in 1944 from what it was when Hoover carried Texas. Religious prejudices have not been injected into this campaign.

The Republicans claim there are now 250,000 Republican voters in Texas. Perhaps they are too optimistic. Regardless of the number, they certainly know that Texas will not go for Dewey. But all of these Republicans want to see Roosevelt defeated. In this event, there is nothing left for them to do but join forces with the Texas Regulars, those Democrats who are tired of the Roosevelt-Hillman-Browder domination of the nation.

The Texas Regulars is composed of Democrats who want to restore the Democratic party to the people, rather than having it bossed by a few hand-picked New Dealers who have been able to manipulate the affairs of the nation for the benefit of the labor racketeers and those who are determined to turn this great nation into a Socialistic camp where they may profit at the expense of the majority.

This is the first opportunity that a clear cut opportunity has been offered to the people to vote on the subject.

A vote for the Democratic electors means a continuation of the same Socialistic policies which has taken over the New Deal.

A vote for the Republican electors means a vote thrown away, since Dewey admits he has no chance in Texas.

If all of those who are opposed to 16 long years of domination in the White House by one man will join forces, they will mark out the Democratic electors; they will mark out the Republican electors; they will mark out the Socialist, Prohibition and America First electors; thus leaving the Texas Regular electors on their ballot.

This sounds like a complicated affair to Texas voters who are accustomed to voting the ticket straight regardless of nominee. But it is very simple. The only chance to help defeat Roosevelt in November is for all voters who are opposed to the 4th term to vote for the Texas Regulars electors.

What will happen in case the Regulars are elected? According to the Gallup Poll, Roosevelt must have the 23 electorial votes from Texas to win in November. If he does not receive a majority of the electorial votes outside of Texas and if the Texas Regulars carry the state, these 23 votes will carry the balance of power in the Electoral College when the votes are cast in December. In such a case the Texas Regulars will have sufficient power to dictate the selection of a President and Vice President, or will throw the election into the House of Representatives. A sound Democrat can be elected under this plan.

We are informed that Republicans in the State are favorable to such a colliation, knowing that Dewey will not win in Texas. The plan appeals to J. E. McDonald, State Commissioner of Agriculture, who has always fought Roosevelt. McDonald knows what the New Deal and Sidney Hillman are trying to do to the farmers of the nation. The plan is the only one presented which will give the voters of Texas who are opposed to the New Deal a chance to express their opposition to CIO domination at the polls.

Farm organizations of Texas which are fearful of seeing CIO take over the farmers are said to be agreeable to the plan to support the Texas Regulars in the November election.

Texas Regulars know the handicap under which they are operating in this campaign, but want to give the people a chance to express their opposition to Roosevelt without the necessity of voting for Dewey. Their case is in the hands of the voters.

The nation has listened to two political speeches since last week. The President turned on his charm Thursday night as he talked to Democratic workers whom he plead to get the vote out so that he would be re-elected for a 4th term. While he answered some of the criticisms which were being directed at his administration, he did so in the smoothest, most persuasive tone at his command. There was none of the rough and tumble fight that he displayed in his first speech, which has back-fired on him. He did not have the usual ghost writers for his speech, or at least some one slipped up when he charged that Republican literature was being printed in the government printing plant at public expense. The White House promptly denied this statement the next day, since Republican members of Congress paid for this printing. In contrast, Dewey spoke Saturday night, continuing his blasts on the administration, and using most of his time in quoting from various statements of the President's political family to show the weakness of the New Deal. Dewey is very effective in this manner of fighting, since this is the role of the prosecuting attorney. The President indicated that he would make no more talks, thus leading the Democratic workers to believe that the election was in the bag for the New Deal. But announcement was made Saturday that he would speak again in New York, and it will probably be convenient for him to make other speeches.

Who's the Boss?

At the time of the settlement of the nationwide strike tie-up of coal production in which the government took over the coal mines and complied with miners' demands under pressure of work stoppages, thoughtful observers looked with foreboding upon the proceedings. The disgraceful spectacle of the United States bowing before the threat of mob force was there for all to see. The country is paying a high price for that exhibition.

The Secretary of the Interior reports that since the United Mine Workers' no-strike pledge of last November, there have been some 1,300 walkouts involving approximately 350,000 men and costing seven million tons of vitally needed fuel. The government has again resorted to seizure of many mine properties. The Secretary's comment on the situation resembles the complaint of a cowed school boy who has just received a beating at the hands of the town bully. He said: "I cannot conceive that the mine workers can turn their backs on their government by continuing to strike at a time when the nation greatly needs every ton of coal that they can produce in order to speed the winning of the war."

This is just so much conversation. The Secretary knows and everyone else knows that the miners have struck against the war effort again and again. As for turning their backs on government, that's a joke. The bitter truth is that they don't have to turn their backs on government—the government takes what they dish out.

How long is the bully going to boss the government?

A Dramatic Record

War is a stern teacher but a great teacher, in the opinion of Robert S. Henry, Assistant to the President, Association of American Railroads. "Five years ago," he said, "there were persons whose information was more extensive than exact, who had proved to their own satisfaction that this country could safely neglect its railroads and should direct its future energies and expenditures toward expansion of other means of transportation. The crucial test of war has taught even the blindest that this nation, builded upon railroads as it is, depends upon them today for its essential transportation needs.

" . . . In this war, railroads are carrying virtually double the load of the last war. They are doing it with one-fourth fewer cars, one-third fewer locomotives, and nearly one-third fewer employes. They are doing it with none of the chronic congestion and prolonged delays of that time. In that war, when the government took over operation of the railroads, they found it necessary to make substantial increases in freight rates. In this war . . . no freight rates are higher than at the beginning of the war, and many rates are lower. In the first world war, the operation of the railroads cost the government two million dollars a day, appropriated from the public treasury to meet deficits of the operation. In this war, the railroads since Pearl Harbor have paid in Federal, state and local taxes more than four billion dollars, and are paying taxes at the rate of five million dollars a day —ten times as much as they are paying their owners in dividends."

The railroads have been able to work this miracle because of their technological advances; the faith of their investors who made possible the expenditure of $10,000,000,000 for railroad improvement in the past twenty years; and because of cooperation between railroads and shippers. But, as Mr. Henry concludes, underlying these three factors and making them possible, is one other and far greater fact—the freedom of a free America.

Talked to a prominent Texan the other day who lives down state where voters are thick. The question was asked him: "What effect is Senator O'Daniel having in this campaign?" The answer was this: "I have never supported or voted for Senator O'Daniel. But I know that he has proved himself honest, and the people have confidence in him. He has increased his radio hook-up from the Southwest to include 37 radio stations throughout the nation. His one aim is to defeat President Roosevelt. He is speaking six times weekly over these radios and is sending his newspaper to thousands of people. He is not taking sides with any local or state organization, but simply showing the short-coming of the administration, and the association of Roosevelt with Sidney Hillman, Earl Browder and other characters who are so distasteful to real Americans. Yes, I believe that Senator O'Daniel will add much weight to the growing avalanche which threatens to sweep Roosevelt from the highest pinnacle of American history down to that of a petty politician who seeks to become political dictator regardless of the cost to the nation." The reader may take this opinion for what it is worth.

Dewey has been charging that the administration had no plan to take care of the demobilization of our men in service. The President answered the charge Thursday night by calling attention to the law which was passed by Congress and approved by him. He adroitly overlooked the fact that he did not sign the bills until Tuesday before his speech, the last day that he could act; and the further fact that it was believed up to the last minute that he would veto the measure. Perhaps Dewey jumped the gun and forced the President to act. At any rate the nation has a demobilization plan, in spite of the fact that the President Thursday night sought to make the people believe that the measure was a matter of history, just 48 hours after he had approved the bill and no one outside of Congress had seen a copy of the measure. But politics are funny critters in any race.

Two great Americans died the past week. Both would have been elected President except for the unhappy turn in politics. Al Smith would have been president had it not been for the prejudice of the people against Catholics; Wendell Willkie would have been president had the Republicans realized his greatness and tried to help him instead of desiring to get rid of him. The political game is tragic, and those who enter it may well beware that even tried and true friends will be on their backs in moments that they least expect it. Both Al Smith and Wendell Willkie were true blue Americans and their names will go down in history as men who loved their nation and loved the people of the nation. They lost the political support of the majority, but won the respect of all who knew of their devotion to the nation.

A truly rich man is not one who has much, but one who gives much.

You cannot divide the wealth by dividing the wealthy.

Mary Patricia Haley was highly pleased over the fact that she was 13 weeks old when this picture was taken. She had just heard that her daddy, Lt. (jg) Arthur C. Haley, Jr., was due to return to the States from the Pacific where he is on duty as Flight Officer in the navy. The little miss has been living with her mother at the home of Mrs. Haley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick, since her birth on June 25. Her other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Ed Castleberry Leads Buffaloes As Captain

West Texas State Buffaloes have never been defeated by the New Mexico University Lobos. Last Saturday in Albuquerque, they won again with a final score of 19 to 12, after a rip-snorting football game.

The Buffs scored midway in the first quarter on a 73-yard march, Curtis Kelley making the last 26 yards. "Hoss" Bledsoe failed to kick the extra point. Just before the half, Eddie Castleberry, captain, took a New Mexico punt on his 35-yard line and loped 55 yards through the Lobos for a touchdown. Again Bledsoe kicked but failed to get the extra point.

The Loboes tied the score in the third quarter with Imboden making the final 12 yards of the drive to pay dirt. He also failed to make the one point.

The next score for the Lobos came when king powered the last yard to complete a 45-yard drive. He missed the try for point.

The Hustlin' Buffs won the game with four minutes to go when they marched 72 yards to a touchdown. Bledsoe made the last yard on a fourth down climatic power drive through the middle of the line. Bill Hopkins kicked the goal for the point.

Captain of the Lobos is Virgil Botler, who played football for the Buffaloes in 1942-43. Botler is now in the Navy and is stationed at Albuquerque; he was in school in W. T. until last fall when he was called to the Navy.

Victory was possible for the Buffaloes because the entire team cooperated splendidly. One of the finest quarterbacks that a team could have is Bledsoe who makes very few mistakes. He hails from Seymour. Castleberry, from Vernon, enriched his title as the fastest man on the team, as at all times he was in the right position.

Coach W. A. Miller commented, "Our boys won because they outfought and out-played the Lobos in every position. On the organized plays that they tried we beat them to the draw. The Navy team outweighed the Buffs 10 pounds to every man."

Substitutes in the game were Billy Hopkins, from Canadian, Pete Bromley, from Lockney, and James Henderson, from Shamrock.

Saturday evening in Buffalo Stadium the Buffs will meet the Amarillo Army Airfield Sky Giants in the first home game. The Sky Giants is one of the thirteen highest ranking teams in the United States, and is made up of professional players. Their goal line has not been crossed this season.

Every student in West Texas State should be present at the game this week end and give the Hustlin' Buffs 100 per cent backing.

"Can't you come in sometime when I'm standing up?" was the indignant reply.

The doctor rushed out of his study. "Get my kit at once!" he shouted.

"Why, dad," asked his daughter, "what's the matter."

"Some fellow just phoned he can't live without me!" gasped the doctor, reaching for his hat.

His daughter breathed a sigh of relief.

Don't Keep Your Folks In the DARK

There's no reason for empty sockets or poor home lighting today. Most electrical dealers now have lamp bulbs in all common home sizes. You can "light up" at low cost, and make sure that everyone in the house has proper illumination.

Of course, you need more than bulbs to produce the proper light for easy, comfortable seeing. Check up on these points as well:

Keep bulbs free of dust and dirt. Keep reflector bowls and shades clean.

Put the right size bulb in each lamp or fixture.

If possible, have white linings in your lamp shades, to reflect more usable light.

Move lamps closer to points of use, so they shed more light directly on the work. In rearranging lamps, you may also be able to make them serve two people, and so increase their usefulness.

Your family needs good light, for the long evenings of fall and winter. Make sure they get it. Sight is priceless—light is cheap.

Public Schools Are In Need Support Says F. E. Savage

F. E. Savage was in charge of the Rotary Club program Tuesday. He highly praised Canyon as a residential town, stating that it was a good place to live. There are 652 children in the public schools and 353 in the demonstration school. Thus there are 1,005 children attending school every day in Canyon below college age. These children come from all over Randall county, and part of Deaf Smith county.

Most people are making more money than usual. Now is the time to think of the welfare of these children and provide them with the best possible educational facilities.

The Canyon public schools needs a building; it needs work on the campus; it needs more teachers; it needs a larger place for a cafeteria.

S-Sgt. Billy Black described the feelings of men in the air force as preparations were made to go on missions over enemy territory. Sgt. Black has just reeturned from Italy where he completed the necessary missions to entitle him to return to the United States. "The boys are doing a fine job over there," was the summary of his impromptu talk.

Visitors were: Bob Lindsey of Borger; N. S. Griggs, Allen Early, Tom Cotton, Oran Thomas, John Cowan, Arch Hunsley, Ed Broome, all of Amarillo; John Holland, T. M. Moore, S-Sgt. Billy Black, all of Canyon.

Glory be! —Now fenders he Treats tenderly

War has proved the value of considerate driving. And now this fine national habit keeps spreading.

There's been a fellow-feeling about cars. When it comes to even a dented fender it's no longer a question of who's to blame, but of sparing one another from costly slow repairs—and footwork. Some such spirit has been making live-and-let-live driving so general. It's only logical to be fully as thoughtful of your engine. You'll exercise wise foresight by having it OIL-PLATED.

You can defy internal acid corrosion . . . engine suicide! . . . by means of OIL-PLATING. You can do it by changing to popular-priced patented Conoco N*th* motor oil—energized to surface your engine's interior with an acid-resistant shield of OIL-PLATING. This is the result of the special Conoco N*th* ingredient developed by costly pioneer research. And while fluid oil alone goes draining down to the crankcase, OIL-PLATING remains as closely attached as if it were chromium plating—keeps on serving its special purpose of hampering contact between corrosive acids and metals!

These unavoidable acids of combustion—always bad—reach their worst in cold weather, when there is rarely heat enough to get rid of acids. Hence they linger inside—aplenty. But every OIL-PLATED surface is armed against the spread of acid corrosion. That's why you want Conoco N*th* oil now . . . from Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

President Hill Attends Meeting of College Leaders in Houston

Building Prospects Are Planned

President J. A. Hill returned Saturday night from Houston where he attended a meeting of the presidents of all the teachers colleges of Texas. Among subjects discussed were loan funds, budgets, graduate work, building programs, and rehabilitation services for men and women returning from armed services.

If plans of the presidents are carried out a building program of close to $16,000,000 is in prospect for the seven colleges, during the six years that follow the close of the war.

The first building on the list for West Texas State will be a $300,000 Library, and President Hill states that a Student Union is very likely to be the second on the list. Completion of the Museum unit which is under way, and of the annex to Randall Hall will take precedence over all new buildings, however.

Patrons of West Texas State will be interested in the budget of the college which will be submitted to the State Legislature when it convenes early in 1945. The budget totals close to $1,000,000 for the biennium. The first year's figure is $400,950.25, and the second is $634,-959.25, a building being included for that year.

In speaking of the building program, President Hill said that an effort is being made to integrate the building plans of the college with those of the Texas Economic Planning Board Program.

While in Houston, the president conferred with Miss Ima Hogg about the administration of the Hogg Fund, $25,000 of which is a loan fund of West Texas State College.

The discussion of graduate work centered around plans to strengthen the offerings, and continue raising the standards, while at the same time making graduate study of greater practical value to the person who seek professional advancement and increased skill through such study.

All the colleges are trying to find how they can help mature students whose study has been interrupted by military service. It is realized that men and women who have been all over the world and who have adapted themselves to the condition of war will not be at all like other students of the same college classification when they resume their college work. Registrar D. A. Shirley is chairman of the local committee that has been studying this matter for more than a year and President Hill brought back to him a report of work in other institutions.

On his way home from Houston, President Hill stopped in Dallas to confer with R. L. Thomas, president of W. T.'s Board of Regents, and with officials of the Dallas News, some of whom may visit Canyon in the near future.

The next meeting of the college presidents is scheduled for November 11, and the State Board of Regents will meet on November 24. It will be necessary for Dr. Hill to go to both these meetings.

CANNING CHICKEN

Poultry has an important place in war time meal planning. The task of killing, dressing and cooking or canning poultry will seem very worthwhile when you considder that poultry is an excellent source of high quality protein and a good source of vitamins and minerals. At this season many flocks of older chickens may be cut much smaller and thus get rid of the hens that are not laying, making room for the young pullets. With our present, "Live at home," program, it might be wise to dress and can these birds for home use.

There are too many methods of preparing and serving canned chicken to ever let your family tire of such a delicate food. The bones may be removed or left on the chicken as desired. To remove the bone gives more space in the jar for meat, but some prefer leaving the larger bones.

The method of packing the chicken in the jars cold, exhausting the unsealed jar for 60 min. pints, an 80 min. for quarts, is advisable. This may be done in your pressure cooker with pet cock open or in a large covered vessel with enough water to come about two inches below the top of the jar or cans. Keep the steam steady but not forceful, as the water may boil up into jars. Seal jars and pressure at 17 lb. pressure, pints 50 min. and quarts 65 minutes.

Captain Swineford Visits Campus Last Week End

Visiting the campus briefly Friday and Saturday was Captain Derald T. Swineford, U. S. A. A. C., who returned a few weeks ago from almost two years of duty in Africa. Captain Swineford is, in peace time, a member of the Art Department staff. He is now stationed at Love Field. Mrs. Swineford and their son, Tommy, have been at Chickasha, Oklahoma during his overseas service.

Mr. Swineford has many tales to tell of his experiences while in North Africa. Most of them are funny. He mentions also that he never wants to see any more dehydrated eggs, tomato juice, potatoes, or, in fact, any other dehydrated food, although he says dehydrated milk makes very good ice cream and works very well in cooked dishes.

He and his family are looking forward to the time when they can return to Canyon, and he can begin to do some of the things which he and Miss Isabel Robinson had planned for the Art department before he went away. These plans include a kiln for firing pottery.

It is possible that W. T. will get to exhibit some of the sketches Captain Swineford made while in Africa; he states that he had little time for sketching or painting, and that most of the things he brought back were hastily done.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rockwell were in Hutchinson, Kansas, last week visiting Mrs. Rockwell's sister, Mrs. B. B. Wright, who is remembered by many Canyon citizens as Miss McBride. Mrs. Wright reads the Canyon News weekly, and is greatly interested in the affairs of the county.

E. C. Penick received word Monday that his nephew, Sgt. Marshall Stovall Penick, aged 24 years, had been killed in action in France on September 13. Sgt. Penick's home was in Covington, Ga.

Dr. Angie Debo of Marshall, Okla., former instructor in the history department at W. T. is spending a week in Canyon visiting with friends. She is making the home of Miss Mary Moss Richardson headquarters while here.

Miss Lois Goodrich spent Saturday here visiting friends. She was a former student in W. T. and teacher in the Canyon high school. She is employed in New York City in Life's Girl Camp, and is delighted with this type of work.

Miss Estelle Burgess and Miss Ann Burgess left Sunday for their schools in Carlsbad and Hobbs, N. M., respectively.

Pantex Will Get E Flag From the Army and Navy

Army and Navy Production Award will be presented to the Pantex Ordnance Plant on October 20 for its excellent record of production in the war effort. The "E" for excellence with its proud background of tradition is the symbol by which both Armed Services confer their highest praise on those plants whose record in the production of war materials is outstanding. Justly proud of their achievement, workers at Pantex continue their efforts to keep a steady stream of bombs and shells flowing to the men who are in the actual fighting on distant battle fronts.

Additional workers are needed now at Pantex in order to meet the increased demands coming from the front lines. New workers will find a typical West Texas welcome in joining the ranks of its "Fighters behind the Fighters" at Pantex. Many citizens from Canyon are working at Pantex.

Wartime Washington

(Newsletter by Gene Worley, Member of Congress for week of October 9-14, 1944)

An encouraging announcement was made this week when the War Production Board officials stated that the production of tires for civilian use will be increased in 1945. It was pointed out, however, that very little rubber would be available for pleasure driving.

Only 12 million passenger car tires were produced during the first nine months of this year according to WPB figures but production during the last three months of the year is expected to raise the year's total to 18.5 million tires. This compares with an original schedule for 1944 of 30 million tires which was reduced to 20 million during the year, and with a peacetime production of almost 50 million tires for new cars and replacement needs. Production during the first three months of 1945 is being scheduled at the rate of 2.5 million a month or 30 million a year.

A further announcement by the War Production Board concerned its decision to authorize the renewal of production of light trucks for civilian use which was stopped in January, 1942. It has authorized the manufacture of 20,000 light trucks for the first six months of 1945 for civilian use.

Major and Mrs. Alton P. Donnell returned to Grand Island, Nebraska Monday night after a few days visit in the parental L. A. Donnell home. Major Donnell is training with the B-29's in Grand Island.

Mrs. Jennie Dodson of Dallas spent the week end at the home of her son, M. M. Cavender. She was accompanied by Mrs. Hattie Flemming.

Pvt. Eugene Bonds is home on a 15-day delayed en route furlough from Camp Meade, Md., to Ford Ord, Calif., where he will receive further orders.

Mrs. E. S. Trout and her sister, Mrs. J. O. Collins from Compton, Calif., visited another sister, Mrs. C. D. Pond, near Umbarger, Wednesday.

Congress Nominates Prexy Contestants

Brown and Win Launch Presidential Campaigns

With Betty Ann Miller acting as temporary chairman, Supt. J. B. Speer climaxed Canyon High School's first 1944-45 assembly Friday by announcing candidates for the presidency of the Student-Faculty Congress. Nominated by the Student Council, Betty Brown and J. Spencer Winn chose as their campaign managers Margaret Lair and Tommy Thompson, respectively.

Led by Billy Thurmon, the student body sang "The Star Spangled Banner," "God Bless America," "America," and the school song.

Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. Weeks, and Mrs. Bartlett, new teachers in Canyon High, stood and were acknowledged by the student body.

In a short talk Mr. Speer discussed the aims of the school, co-operation of students and faculty, and some of the school regulations.

Harold Erwin, chairman of the Stamps and Bonds committee, made an announcement concerning the sale of stamps and bonds.

BRAIN DECAY

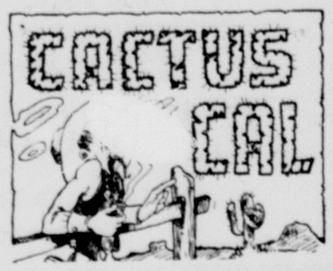
When did you last sweep the cobwebs out of your cranium? John L. Student, our typical problem child, is in the process of exploring his run-down cells at this very moment. Shall we sneak in? Hummmmmm-

Certain outstanding membranes contain the words go, fun, and trouble. John plus Myrtle equals love is the extent of his algebraic knowledge. Thoughts of Betty, Mabel, and Sue occupy the well-deserved places of such history greats as Washington, Lincoln, and Jefferson. Entering his supposed scientific chamber, we find him thinking of the bet he made on the Cardinals.

Hooray! Here we have a turn for the better. He has just tripped over the nucleus of his two-faced instincts and flirtations. From now on he will let his beacon light shed its rays on only five females.

Too bad, another turn for the worse; those E's he made in some of his studies must be due to the fact that an incomplete brain cell was not coordinating.

Oh well, this could go on forever, but let's switch to your brain. Sneak into your subconscious capacity, if you dare, and take an inventory. Do you have some dusty brain cells where your mind keeps unpurposeful thoughts, or do you keep your brain well organized for further advancement to win your ultimate goals?



Jolene Porter is falling for Carl Hair, leaving Carrol Ray Dickerson holding the bag, or so we hear.

Lloyd Lindsey threw a long wink at Dorothy Gafford in English II. It couldn't be a case starting between those two?

That steady-going Frances Gooch is back in circulation again after all these months. Well, what are you going to do about it, boys?

Is it true, or did my eyes deceive me again? Yes, it's true. Charlene Simmons was with that "one time Canyon High boy," Richmond Hales. With them were Rose Hugg and Carol SoRelle.

Nell Drake was seen doing the town with Max Dutton Saturday night. Could it be that Nell has finally made up her mind?

It seems that a little girl by the name of Janie (no last names mentioned) thinks that Robert Fisher is just about tops. Well, well.

It couldn't be that "Rusty" Davis stood Valeta Haines up Saturday night, could it? What about that, "Rusty"?

Jimmy Lindsey was heard to remark about Suzanne Stephenson—

Violets are green

Time Out

By Ellen Root

Sports activities of CHS will really begin Monday when basketball practice starts. The Eagle string will be defending champs on their own court sometime in December, when the annual invitation tournament will be held.

"We are looking forward to an outstanding season with a team that will go places," said Coach Milton Sanders.

The pep rally at the college Thursday night sure made us long for the good old days when football was the main morale builder of Eagle supporters. Here's hoping it won't be long until Canyon High School can resume its place among the top football teams of the Panhandle.

New equipment which has been ordered for the Eagles includes basketballs, white playing jerseys, and purple and white jockey satin warm-up suits with jackets instead of the former pull-over tops. Fancy, no?

FHT Organization Begins Current Club Activities

Seventy-two home economics girls met in the clothing laboratory Friday, October 6, and organized the local chapter of the Future Homemakers of Texas.

Betty Ann Miller, last year's F. H. T. president, took charge until the students elected Laura Lee Davis president.

Other officers elected were: vice-president, Rose Hugg; secretary, Nancy Wilson; treasurer, Nadine Sterling; reporter, Joyce Sanders; scrapbook chairman, Nell Drake; social service chairman, Pauline Baker.

Time, meeting place and ways of making money were discussed. It was decided that the executives of the club should meet with Mrs. Ewell Fowler, sponsor, and make decisions pertaining to club activities.

Those holding offices in the F. H. T. chapter must be taking home economics and the President must be above Freshman rank.

Students Conduct Spanish Meeting

Members of the Spanish I Club met Friday for the first time this year. To open the program they gave the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, later sang "Alla En El Rancho Grande," and played games, all in the Spanish language.

At the beginning of the meeting, Dick Milford, president of the club, took charge. After the reading of the minutes, the club decided not to have class fees but when money was needed each student would bring necessary funds. After that the program was turned over to Marilyn Johnigan, program chairman.

"Alla En El Rancho Grande" was led by Frances Gooch, Geraldine Small, Earline Davis and Betty Ann Miller, who sang it themselves first.

Dick Milford and Leroy Hutton put on a short act before the class about two "hombres" down in Mexico.

Two groups, which were led by Frances Gooch and Norma Jo Currie, had a number match which went by the same rules as those of a spelling match. This game closed the program and climaxed in a tie.

Community Gives Modern Ice Box

On approximately November 1, our school will receive a 30 cubic foot ice box which will be placed in the school lunch room. Purchased with money contributed by various clubs, communities, and individuals, the cost of this cooler was $445. Rural women who canvased their neighborhoods are largely responsible for the success of this drive. Largest of the contributions was $147 given by the Jowell community. This sum was earned at a box supper.

Donations for the lunchroom fund are still being accepted at the bank. After purchasing the ice box, the remainder of the money will be used to help defray the heavy cost of operating the cafeteria.

Students! Teachers! Friends! Canyon High School is publishing an annual for the 1944-45 school term! It's almost unbelievable, but it's the first annual published since 1929.

It is supposed that the background for the annual will be purple with an eagle and the 1945 in white. The cost has been estimated at about $2.50 per annual. Published by the Taylor Engraving Corporation, the Standard Delux Annual will be side-wire stitched and bound in colors selected by the school. This standard book consists of fifty pages of pictures and printing, with fifteen pages of standard introductory and division pages. Printing or pictures can be used on these pages, but if either is used the picture or printing charge will be made. Fifteen pages of pictures or pictures and printing and twenty pages of printing, drawings, advertising, etc. will be included.

All students in high school will have individual pictures in the yearbook and all clubs and organizations will have their pictures taken in groups. Mrs. Gilmore will sponsor this annual and the Press Club will edit it instead of the special edition of the Eagle's Tale, which has been published every spring previously.

Homemakers Eat Supper At Park

As a part of their nutrition study, members of the third year homemaking class rode to the Roadside Park on Thursday afternoon for a hamburger fry. Each of the six members invited one guest. Those present were: Laura Lee Davis, Joyce Sanders, Lorene Seales, Mary Lou Gunter, Nancy Wilson, Margaret Lair, Rose Hugg, Nadine Sterling, Pauline Baker, Imelda Lange, Mrs. E. J. Sanders, and Mrs. Ewell Fowler, homemaking teacher.

Everyone participated in the preparation of the meal, which consisted of hamburgers, beans, chili sauce, fried potatoes, celery and carrot strips, lettuce heads, oatmeal cookies and coffee. After a hike the members and their guests attended the movie, "Between Two Worlds."

Crabtree Suggests Group Workers for First Drive

Late communications from Washington state that the schools of the nation purchased and sold more than $6,000,000 in War Bonds and Stamps for the 1943-44 school year. This total exceeds by $1,000,000 the $5,000,000 goal set for this period.

Mrs. J. W. Walker, Texas Director of Schools at War, and her committeemen have planned a Two-fold "Military Objective" for the coming school year. To participate in this activity each school is to (1) qualify to fly the Schools-at-War flag by American Education Week, November 5-11, indicating that at least 90% of the pupils are saving regularly; and (2) to complete at least one or more campaigns to sponsor the buying of an ambulance, plane, or other essential equipment by December 7.

In co-operation with this program, Canyon High School students hope to buy $1165 worth of Bonds and Stamps toward purchasing a jeep during the first campaign, which began October 10.

Miss Birdie Crabtree, commercial teacher, sponsors the sale of Bonds and Stamps each Tuesday and Wednesday between 9:30 and 10:00 and between 1:30 and 2:00. Acting as a committee, class presidents have been working with Miss Crabtree on plans for this drive. Students selected by the committee from the individual classes are helping to sell the Bonds and Stamps.

In order to stimulate interest and furnish competition class flags have been made on which will be registered the percentage of students in each class who are participating in the campaign.

Miss Crabtree and her committee urge every student and teacher to help make this first and future campaigns a success for Canyon High School and for America.

Pvt. Eugene Bonds, who has been in the service for six months, is now visiting his parents while en route to Camp Orr, California. Receiving his basic training at Camp Roberts, California, he later received his non com training at Camp Reynolds, Pennsylvania. Pvt. Bonds will leave to report for further duty on October 15.

After completing 51 missions as lower ball gunner on one of our fighting planes, Sgt. Billy Black, son of Mrs. Alice Black of Canyon and a 1938 graduate of Canyon High School, has returned home on furlough. Transferring from his National Guard unit to the Air Corps after December 7, 1941, gunner Black was assigned to the fifteenth air force in Italy while at Ft. McDill, Florida.

As an example of the fine work of the Red Cross, Sgt. Black told of the entertainment furnished our boys overseas. Irving Berlin, composer, put on his show "This Is the Army" for the boys in Fogia, Italy, while moving pictures, art classes, tours and other entertainments were also available. Rudolph Valentino's home was converted by the Red Cross into a service club; as a direct contrast, an old hay barn often served the members of the 483 bombardment group as a chapel.

A Presidential citation, the Air Medal, a European Theater Ribbon, and a good conduct medal adorn the chest of Sgt. Black, proving that he has helped in the struggle for victory and peace.

Two other exes, Wac Sgt. Betty Solomon and Pvt. Robert Laughery, are also home on leave but staff writers were unable to obtain interviews.

Fish Explorers Sift Mystic Chemistry

Without any disasterous results as yet the general science class, directed by Mrs. Ed Weeks, has performed several interesting (?) experiments on the gasses of the air.

"The freshmen are as great explorers in science as everything else," said Mrs. Weeks.

Physics students, guided by Mrs. Jackson, have spent most of their time studying the bouyancy of floating bodies. When interviewed, Mrs. Jackson would make no statement but insisted that members of the class be consulted. This accounts for the shortness of this paragraph.

When able to take time out from pestering each other, the chemistry class is also studying the gasses of the air. Many interesting facts come to light; such as when it was discovered that the answers to the questions in the workbook are in the back. Everything was O. K. until Mrs. Jackson found out also. Then too, but only at odd times, experiments are performed by and on various members of the class.

Connecticut is an Indian name meaning "at the long tidal river."

Classes Complete Officer Election

During class meetings Friday most of the groups completed the selection of officers and made other plans for future activities.

Seniors decided to conduct a Sadie Hawkins Assembly on November 11. Class dues were set at one dollar a year with appropriations, and a number of regulations were read by Mrs. Dan Sanders, class sponsor.

Juniors held a discussion on a hayride but have not made any decisions as yet. Suggestions for raising funds for the Junior-Senior Banquet were made.

Sophomores elected Dick Milford, social chairman; and Louise Tucek and James Rigsby, student council alternates. Roomparents are: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Browning, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gooch, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Prichard, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Long, Mrs. Lena Tucek, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bourgeois. Class dues were set at 50 cents per semester.

Freshmen elected as alternates to the Student Council Nancy Nicklaus and Guy Brant.

Joan Bullard and Don Stone were elected by eighth graders to serve as alternates to the Student Council, while seventh graders chose Joe Dean Abbott and Dolores Anderwald.

DUST BOWL LESSON LEARNED

With the lesson of "dust bowls" fresh in their minds, American farmers during this war are using their land much more wisely today than they did in the last war the Office of War Information reports on the basis of data from the Departments of Agriculture, Interior and War. Farmers plowed up 30 million acres of land unsuitable for row-crop cultivation during the last war. During this war they have plowed up less than 1,170,000 acres of such land, and much of this has been put in victory gardens where it can be kept fairly well under control. Airfields have caused one of the worst recent soil erosion problems. Spinning propellors caused miniature dust storms—resulting in damage to planes and injury to the men. Soil conservation experts and army engineers, however, have worked out methods of protecting the runways and preventing these miniature "dust bowls" from getting started.

THIS IS FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

This is fire prevention week, by proclamation of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. One out of every three persons who lost their lives as a result of fires in the United States last year was a farm person, the Department of Agriculture reports. Fire is more hazardous on the farm than in the city because few farms can call on a trained fire department for assistance, most farms are not equipped with a ready water supply for fire-fighting, farm buildings usually are not as fire resistant as city buildings and farmers usually carry less fire insurance than city people do. Farm fire prevention suggestions have a readily available ladder that will reach to the top of the highest building, see that there is a water supply for fire fighting in the farm yard, and establish firebreaks around haystacks, farm buildings and maturing farm crops of high fire hazard.

MAY EASE DADS FUEL BILL

Coal shortages this year have prompted the solid Fuels Administration for War to offer householders the following fuel-savings suggestion. "Winterize" with insulation, storm sash and weather-stripping; clean and repair heating plant; install temperature control device; keep room temperatures as low as health and reasonable comfort will permit; clean furnace regularly during heating season; keep windows closed as much as possible; and close off unused room space. To assist in fuel-saving, 111 Weather Bureau Stations in 25 States East of the Mississippi River and in Minnesota are determining a date in each community after which continuous central heating should be necessary.

OUTLOOK FOR LIVESTOCK PRICES

With fewer hogs to be marketed this fall and winter and with large non-civilian pork purchases, the hog price outlook is more promising than a year ago, the Department of Agriculture says. Total calf slaughter this year will reach an all-time high. The large slaughter has resulted from high butterfat prices in relation to dairy cow prices, a weak demand for calves by cattle feeders, relatively high prices for veal calves for slaughter and record numbers of cows on farms. Prices for lambs are likely to average higher this fall and winter than a year ago, and ewe prices, now lowest since the fall of 1941, are expected to continue lower than a year ago.

AID FOR WAR VICTIMS

Since Poland was invaded in 1939, Americans have given more than $175,000,000 to war victims of more than 20 Countries, the Presidents War Relief Control Board reported in calling attention to the second National War Fund Drive to be conducted during October. Before the War Relief Control Board was established, 700 agencies were appealing to the public separately for support. Now only 110 agencies are authorized to engage in foreign and domestic war charity—including United Service Organizations, United Seamens Service, War Prisoners Aid, and local Community Chest services. The $250,000.000 fund sought this year is expected to bring aid to 60 million persons.

SAFETY RULES FOR PAPER SAVING

When salvage paper is collected, to avoid fire hazard, the Department of Agriculture recommends that it be stacked neatly and tied in bundles. Paper boxes should be flattened, then tied in tight bundles. A metal trunk or bin with a tight cover is the safest place to store paper. Next best is to stack paper bundles on a cement floor away from furnace, stove or hot pipes. Soiled or oily paper is useless for salvage and is only a fire hazard and should be destroyed.

TOBACCO CONSUMPTION NEAR RECORD

While domestic tobacco consumption has declined in recent months, this decline has been offset by shipments to armed forces abroad, so that overall consumption is at or near the highest in the history of the industry, the Department of Agriculture reports.

NOT A MAN IN THE PLANT

The women have it all their own way in one Melbourne, Australia, war plant. Now entering its fourth year of operation, this plant is run entirely by women, ages 25 to 40. Most of the women had never worked outside their homes before they took their present jobs. Among other things the women turn out steering gears for Bren gun carriers and telescope holders for 25-pounders. Miss Irene Searles, General Manager, is now in the U. S. studying latest production methods.

RABBIT COMES INTO HIS OWN

When early English settlers moved to Australia, they took rabbits with them, according to the Australian News and Information Bureau. Australia then spent millions of dollars trying to get rid of the offspring of these rabbits. The Australians hunted them with guns, traps, poison bait, ferrets and gas. In Western Australia they even built a supposedly rabbit-proof fence from North to South. Still the rabbits increased. Then came the war. Other meat grew scarce. Rabbit meat was coupon-free. Recently, the Indian Government asked for Australian rabbits to breed for food for her services, and export of rabbit pelts to the United States is increasing. Today, Australia's one-time pest is practically a national hero.

TO HELP VETERANS WITH HOUSING

To provide living quarters for war veterans, honorably discharged since December 31, 1940, who are unable to find them, the WPB and the National Housing Agency offer immediate priorities assistance for construction, alteration or betterment of houses. Veterans should apply on form WPB -2896 at the nearest Federal Housing Agency Office. If the veteran does not know where the nearest FHA office is situated, his local banker should be able to tell him.

ROUND-UP

OPA says: More than 88 million persons live in rent-controlled areas in the U. S. . . . Farmers will pay about 40 cents a hundred pounds more for dried beet pulp and dried mollasied pulp as a result of new ceiling prices. . . . Highest retail prices for cranberries is expected to be about 41 cents a pound, since ceilings have been revised due to weather damage to the crop.

The Department of Agriculture says: Total feed grain supplies for the 1944-45 feeding year are estimated to be third largest on record. . . . The Airosol Bomb method of combating mosquitoes, which in 10 seconds can release enough poison to kill mosquitoes in a large room, shows postwar promise for household use against flies and mosquitoes and for protection of certain truck crops.

The WFA announces a support price of $12.50 a hundredweight, Chicago basis, for good and choice butcher hogs, 200 to 240 pounds, and a cotton loan rate on the 1944 crop of an average of 20.03 cents a pound, gross weight for 7-8 inch middling cotton.

West Coast shipbuilding and repair yards need 25,000 more workers in October and 2,000 workers are needed for naval repair work at Pearl Harbor. Workers will be recruited through United States Employment Service Offices in all parts of the country. . . . Sale of second hand school buses and other local passenger transportation equipment is now unrestricted, but purchasers to obtain gasoline must qualify for certificates of war necessity, the ODT says. . . . For the first time in the country's history, births exceeded the three million mark, in 1943, the Department of Commerce reports.

FEAR IS WHAT DOES IT, and many a car-owner has felt that freezing chill this summer, when a sudden, new noise from his motor has filled him with dread that his car was chugging its last.

There's nothing like that fear to make a stupid driver resolve to follow better driving practices. The intelligent motorist needs no such warning; and he always makes certain that the motor runs only with quality oil in the crankcase.

Obviously there are a number of such oils. And to help you select one of them, easily and with certainty, Phillips gives you these facts:

Phillips offers a number of oils because car-owners' preferences and pocketbooks vary. But when you want our best oil, remember Phillips tells you frankly that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality . . . the highest grade and greatest value . . . among all the oils we offer to average motorists.

☛ It's good for your motor, under today's reduced driving conditions, to change oil every two months, say experts. For that change, and for seasonal draining and refilling, you make sure of getting a quality lubricant, when you simply say: Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

It's Phillips Finest Quality

Here's a million-to-one shot:

J. A. Gooch, prominent Fort Worth lawyer, is known as "Tiny," a nickname that the giant acquired during his football days at the University of Texas. The other day, your columnist ran into him and as we stood waiting for a traffic signal to change, I asked:

"What is your sure-enough name, Tiny?"

He reddened a little and said, "That's a secret."

Just then a man turned the corner in an automobile and yelled, "Hello, Aubrey."

I looked at Gooch and Gooch looked at me and then he said, with a weak smile, "You got me, sheriff."

A little-known natural wonder is to be found in Montgomery County—a magnolia forest. Not a clump or clusters of magnolias but a forest that is three miles long and from a quarter to half a mile in width! Magnolia Ridge is eight miles southeast of Conroe—and when the war ends and the tourist crop is again one of the nation's biggest "industries," the forest of towering magnolias should prove an attraction drawing many visitors annually.

The trouble with an "authority" is that he can't be simple about anything. Ask him, for example, what a cat is. The first word I learned to spell was C-A-T. Everybody knows what a cat is. A cat is a cat (as Gertrude Stein of a "rose is a rose is a rose" fame would put it). But that's too simple, too obvious for an "authority." What does the learned man allow? Why he says:

"Cat, the general name for all quadrupeds of the family Felidae of the carnivorous order."

I bet you didn't know that a cat had a last name and belonged to a family named Felidae, did you? Neither did I, and I doubt if the cat knows it, either.

The civilian who wasn't quite equal to the task of distinguishing officer's rank by their insignia, was conversing with a colonel. Several times he called him captain, then, as if not sure, he asked: "You are a captain, aren't you?"

"Well," said the colonel, slightly amuse. "I am not any more, although I once was."

"That's too bad," consoled the civilian. "Drink I suppose."

Benjamin Harris, the first American newspaper editor, was jailed in England in 1679 for publishing a pamphlet offensive to the government.
